

Oakwood Hamlet `Shogi

On the historic road that leads from Delhi to Shimla (320 km from Delhi), just before the bustling Shimla town stands the perfect destination for naturalists, adventurers and romantics –Oakwood Hamlet. As soon as you cross Kaithlighat railway station on the Shimla Highway, take a right turn after the Mahalaxmi Furniture showroom, 3kms downhill.

Surrounded by oak forests, at 5900 ft above sea level, the Oakwood Hamlet lies halfway down one of the most beautiful slopes of the Shimla Hills on the outskirts of a friendly highland village called Shoghi. Breathtaking views of the valley and wonderful gardens with secret corners greet you as you arrive here. Elegant mud-plastered cottages and straw-and-bamboo huts blend seamlessly in the serene natural surroundings.

Mud Cottage

The accommodation at the Oakwood Hamlet is customized to optimize the experience of nature. You can choose from a combination of Mud cottages, Bamboo huts and Luxury tents to make your stay memorable. Built simple yet elegant. Only natural materials are used in the construction of this eco-friendly retreat. Much use has been made of clay, stone, wood, which reflect traditional village practices and aesthetics. The paint used is specially mixed with mud, in true native fashion, to ensure the facade is in harmony with nature.

For rest and rejuvenation, for romance and adventure, for nature and inspiration, Oakwood Hamlet is perfect. It has three distinct types of eco-friendly accommodation spread across the property.

- ❖ Eight Village Style Mud Cottages with a fireplace
- ❖ Four Single Bedroom Bamboo Huts
- ❖ Four Luxury Tents

These huts/cottages have an attached bath, hot and cold shower as well as room heating facilities and TV with cable connection. Bright and clean spaces with a large fireplace and high windows offer stunning views of the valley. The surrounding oak forest offers a private, peaceful setting for relaxation and rejuvenation.
